ABOUT CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON (CSUF)
Cal State Fullerton is a leading campus of the CSU, serving as an intellectual and cultural center for Southern California and driver of workforce and economic development. With roughly 40,000 students, CSUF is an in-demand choice in the region. CSUF is ranked No. 1 among four-year public institutions in California in enrolling community college transfer students. We lead the CSU in admitting and enrolling Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) students. CSUF is Accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior College and University Commission and a designated Hispanic Serving Institution.

ADMISSIONS PROCESS
To ensure a fair process for all applicants, the transfer GPA requirements will not be determined until after the priority application filing period ends on December 4, 2020*. It will be based on the number of applications received, the competitiveness of the pool, and the number of enrollment spaces available. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the deadline has been extended for this year only

TRANSFER ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS
Students must meet all of the following requirements for admission to CSUF:
- Good academic standing at the last college or university attended
- 60 transferable semester units (90 quarter units); a maximum of 70 transferable units from a community college may be used toward completion of a degree
- A minimum of 30 semester units (45 quarter units) in CSU-approved general education coursework selected from either the CSU General Education Breadth pattern or the IGETC (Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum).
- All admissions requirements (Golden 4, 60 transferable units and GPA) and desired ADT must be completed by end of Spring '21 for Fall '21 admission.

  - Written Communication
  - Critical Thinking
  - Mathematics/Quantitative Reasoning

ASSOCIATES DEGREE FOR TRANSFER
Some community colleges may offer an Associate’s Degree for Transfer (ADT). For more details visit, adegreewithaguarantee.com

IMPACTION
Cal State Fullerton is a fully impacted campus. Impaction means there are more applicants for our campus than can be accommodated. To ensure capacity is not exceeded, more rigorous standards are applied to the transfer applicant pool. Impacted criteria may include local vs. out-of-local and/or major program impaction.
All transfer students must declare a major when submitting their application.

CSUF TRANSFER CENTER
CSUF works closely with California Community College transfer centers to ensure that their students receive current information about our campus admissions process, academic programs, and student services. The Transfer Center provides on-campus peer advising and one-on-one peer mentoring for prospective students seeking to transfer from California community colleges or other institutions. Transfer Peer Advisors provide admissions information for prospective students, Cal State Apply assistance, CSUF website navigation, and information about degree programs and student services. Contact us at 657-278-3358, transfer@fullerton.edu or visit fullerton.edu/transfers.
